10 JUNE 2010
METRORAIL READY TO TAKE YOU TO THE STADIUM AND BACK DURING THE 2010 FIFA
SOCCER WORLD CUP

Metrorail Gauteng, A division of Prasa – With the successful hosting of scores of rugby fans during the rugby semi-finals and final games held at Orlando Stadium a few weeks ago, Metrorail is ready to transport the 2010 FIFA Soccer World Cup ticket holders, free of charge, starting with the opening match set to take place at Soccer City on 11 June 2010.

Valid game ticket holders will be able to use Metrorail train services to get to the stadiums as well as our secure parking facilities at Park Station which are accessible from Rissik Street. The boarding of our special 2010 FIFA Soccer World Cup trains will take place on platform 11 and 12 at Park Station with passengers dropped-off at our newly refurbished Nasrec Station situated within 5 minutes from Soccer City.
