

MEDIA RELEASE

17 August 2010

TAKE THE METRORAIL TO THE SPRINGBOKS VS NEW ZEALAND GAME THIS SATURDAY

Metrorail (Gauteng), a division of PRASA, will be running a train service to the game between the Springboks and New Zealand on Saturday, 21 August 2010.

The train will depart from Pretoria Station at 13h20 making stops at the following stations:

- Centurion Station at 13h32,
- Oakmore station at 13h55,
- Kempton Park Station at 14h01,
- Rhodesfield Station at 14h11,
- Isando station at 14h13,
- Germiston station at 14h35
- Johannesburg Station at 14h58 before its final stop at Nasrec station at 15h37.

The departure after the match will be at 19:25 from Nasrec Station, stopping at all the aforementioned stations and arriving at 21:42 in Pretoria Station.

Parking is available on a first come first serve basis at Pretoria Station. Fans are advised to follow and observe the set train travel times for convenience as no trains will be provided outside the set times.

For more information and schedules please visit www.prasa.com or www.metrorail.co.za

Contact person:

Lillian Mofokeng
Senior Manager - Marketing and Communications, Prasa Rail
082 888 8362

